The second round China-Chile FTA Negotiation was held from April 27 to 29 in Santiago, capital of Chile.

During the meeting, China and Chile exchanged the lists of products with lowering tariff, and deeply exchanged views on relevant problems of ways to lower tariff. The two sides negotiated in detail on rules of origin, animals and plants quarantine, technical barrier to trade and dispute settlement mechanism. In addition the two sides established high-level technical working group to discuss on problems that appeared in FTA negotiations and promote solving.
