CHAPTER TEN
TRADE REMEDIES

Section A: Safeguard Measures

ARTICLE 10.1: APPLICATION OF A SAFEGUARD MEASURE

If, as a result of the reduction or elimination of a customs duty under this Agreement, an originating good of the other Party is being imported into the territory of a Party in such increased quantities, in absolute terms or relative to domestic production, and under such conditions that the imports of such originating good from the other Party constitute a substantial cause of serious injury, or threat thereof, to a domestic industry producing a like or directly competitive good, the Party may:

- (a) suspend the further reduction of any rate of customs duty on the good provided for under this Agreement; or
- (b) increase the rate of customs duty on the good to a level not to exceed the lesser of
  - (i) the most-favored-nation (MFN) applied rate of duty on the good in effect at the time the action is taken, and
  - (ii) the MFN applied rate of duty on the good in effect on the day immediately preceding the date of entry into force of this Agreement; or
- (c) in the case of a customs duty applied to a good on a seasonal basis, increase the rate of duty to a level that, for each season, does not exceed the lesser of:
  - (i) the MFN applied rate of duty on the good in effect for the corresponding season immediately preceding the date of imposition of the safeguard measure; and
  - (ii) the MFN applied rate of duty on the good in effect for the corresponding season immediately preceding the date of entry into force of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 10.2: CONDITIONS AND LIMITATIONS

1. A Party shall notify the other Party in writing on initiation of an investigation described in paragraph 2 and shall consult with the other Party as far in advance of applying a safeguard measure as practicable, with a view to reviewing the information arising from the investigation and exchanging views on the measure.

2. A Party shall apply a safeguard measure only following an investigation by the Party's competent authorities in accordance with Articles 3 and 4.2(c) of the Safeguards Agreement, and to this end, Articles 3 and 4.2(c) of the Safeguards Agreement are incorporated into and made a part of this Agreement, mutatis mutandis.

3. In the investigation described in paragraph 2, the Party shall comply with the requirements of Article 4.2(a) of the Safeguards Agreement, and to this end, Article 4.2(a) of the Safeguards Agreement is incorporated into and made a part of this Agreement, mutatis mutandis.

4. Each Party shall ensure that its competent authorities complete any such investigation within one year of its date of initiation.

5. Neither Party may apply a safeguard measure:

- (a) except to the extent, and for such time, as may be necessary to prevent or remedy serious injury and to facilitate adjustment;
- (b) for a period exceeding two years, except that the period may be extended by up to one year if the competent authorities of the importing Party determine, in conformity with the procedures specified in this Article, that the measure continues to be necessary to prevent or remedy serious injury and to facilitate adjustment and that there is evidence that the industry is adjusting, provided that the total period of application of a safeguard measure, including the period of initial application and any extension thereof, shall not exceed three years; or
- (c) beyond the expiration of the transition period, except with the consent of the other Party.

6. Neither Party may apply a safeguard measure more than once against the same good.

7. Where the expected duration of the safeguard measure is over one year, the importing Party shall progressively liberalize it at regular intervals.

8. When a Party terminates a safeguard measure, the rate of customs duty shall be the rate that, according to the Party's Schedule to Annex 2-B (National Treatment and Market Access for Goods - Tariff Elimination), would have been in effect but for the measure.

ARTICLE 10.3: PROVISIONAL MEASURES

In critical circumstances where delay would cause damage that would be difficult to repair, a Party may apply a safeguard measure on a provisional basis pursuant to a preliminary determination that there is clear evidence that imports of an originating good from the other Party have increased as the result of the reduction or elimination of a customs duty under this Agreement, and such imports constitute a substantial cause of serious injury, or threat thereof, to the domestic industry. Before a preliminary determination may be made, the Party shall publish a public notice in its official journal setting forth how interested parties, including importers and exporters, may obtain a non-confidential copy of the application requesting a provisional safeguard measure, and shall provide interested parties at least 20 days from the date of publication of the notice during which to submit evidence and views regarding the application of a provisional measure. No provisional measure may be applied until at least 45 days after initiation of an investigation. The duration of any provisional measure shall not exceed 200 days, during which time the Party shall comply with the requirements of Articles 10.2.2 and 10.2.3. The Party shall promptly refund any tariff increases if the investigation described in Article 10.2.2 does not result in a finding that the requirements of Article 10.1 are met. The duration of any provisional measure shall be counted as part of the period described in Article 10.2.5(b).

ARTICLE 10.4: COMPENSATION

1. A Party applying a safeguard measure shall consult with the Party whose goods are subject to the safeguard measure regarding appropriate trade liberalizing compensation in the form of concessions having substantially equivalent trade effects or equivalent to the value of the additional duties expected to result from the measure, and shall provide such compensation as is mutually agreed by the Parties. The Party shall provide an opportunity for such consultations no later than 30 days after the application of the safeguard measure.

2. If the Parties are unable to agree on compensation within 30 days after consultations commence, the Party against whose originating good the measure is applied may suspend the application of concessions with respect to originating goods of the Party applying the safeguard measure that have trade effects substantially equivalent to the safeguard measure.

3. The obligation to provide compensation under paragraph 1 and the right to suspend concessions under paragraph 2 shall terminate on the date the safeguard measure terminates.

ARTICLE 10.5: GLOBAL SAFEGUARD ACTIONS

DRAFT
Subject to Legal Review for Accuracy, Clarity, and Consistency

1. Each Party retains its rights and obligations under Article XIX of GATT 1994 and the Safeguards Agreement. This Agreement does not confer any additional rights or obligations on the Parties with regard to actions taken under Article XIX of GATT 1994 and the Safeguards Agreement, except that a Party taking a global safeguard measure may exclude imports of an originating good of the other Party if such imports are not a substantial cause of serious injury or threat thereof.
2. Neither Party may apply, with respect to the same good, at the same time:
  - (a) a safeguard measure; and
  - (b) a measure under Article XIX of GATT 1994 and the Safeguards Agreement.

ARTICLE 10.6: DEFINITIONS

For purposes of Section A:

domestic industry means, with respect to an imported good, the producers as a whole of the like or directly competitive good operating in the territory of a Party, or those whose collective output of the like or directly competitive good constitutes a major proportion of the total domestic production of that good;

safeguard measure means a measure described in Article 10.1;

serious injury means a significant overall impairment in the position of a domestic industry;

substantial cause means a cause that is important and not less than any other cause;

threat of serious injury means serious injury that, on the basis of facts and not merely on allegation, conjecture, or remote possibility, is clearly imminent; and transition period means the 10-year period following entry into force of this Agreement, except that for any good for which the Schedule in Annex 2-B (National Treatment and Market Access for Goods – Tariff Elimination) of the Party applying the safeguard measure provides for the Party to eliminate its tariffs on the good over a period of more than 10 years, transition period shall mean the tariff elimination period for that good.

Section B: Antidumping and Countervailing Duties

DRAFT
Subject to Legal Review for Accuracy, Clarity, and Consistency

ARTICLE 10.7: ANTIDUMPING AND COUNTERVAILING DUTIES

1. Each Party retains its rights and obligations under the WTO Agreement with regard to the application of antidumping and countervailing duties.
2. Except for paragraphs 3 and 4, no provision of this Agreement shall be construed as imposing any rights or obligations on a Party with respect to antidumping or countervailing duty measures. No Party may have recourse to dispute settlement under this Agreement for any matter arising under this Article.<sup>1</sup>

Notification and Consultations

3. (a) Upon receipt by a Party's competent authorities of a properly documented antidumping application with respect to imports from the other Party, and before initiating an investigation, the Party shall provide written notification to the other Party of its receipt of the application and afford the other Party a meeting or other similar opportunities regarding the application, consistent with the Party's law.
- (b) Upon receipt by a Party's competent authorities of a properly documented countervailing duty application with respect to imports from the other Party, and before initiating an investigation, the Party shall provide written notification to the other Party of its receipt of the application and afford the other Party a meeting to consult with its competent authorities regarding the application.

Undertakings

4. (a) After the initiation of an antidumping or countervailing duty investigation by a Party's competent authorities, the Party shall transmit to the other Party's embassy or competent authorities written information regarding the Party's procedures for requesting consideration by its authorities of an undertaking on price, or, as appropriate, on quantity, including the time frames for offering and concluding any such undertaking.
- (b) In an antidumping investigation, where a Party's authorities have made a preliminary affirmative determination of dumping and injury caused by such dumping, the Party shall afford due consideration, and adequate opportunity for consultations, to exporters of the other Party regarding proposed price undertakings which, if accepted, may result in suspension of the investigation without imposition of antidumping duties, through the means provided for in the Party's laws and procedures.

- (c) In a countervailing duty investigation, where a Party's authorities have made a preliminary affirmative determination of subsidization and injury caused by such subsidization, the Party shall afford due consideration, and adequate opportunity for consultations, to the other Party, and exporters of the other Party, regarding proposed undertakings on price, or, as appropriate, on quantity, which, if accepted, may result in suspension of the investigation without imposition of countervailing duties, through the means provided for in the Party's laws and procedures.

Section C: Committee on Trade Remedies

ARTICLE 10.8: COMMITTEE ON TRADE REMEDIES

1. The Parties hereby establish a Committee on Trade Remedies, comprising representatives at an appropriate level from relevant agencies of each Party who have responsibility for trade remedies matters, including antidumping, subsidies and countervailing measures, and safeguards issues.

2. The functions of the Committee shall be to:

- (a) enhance each Party's knowledge and understanding of the other's trade remedy laws, policies, and practices;
- (b) oversee implementation of this Chapter, including compliance with the provisions of paragraphs 3 and 4 of Article 10.7 (Antidumping and Countervailing Duties);
- (c) improve cooperation between the Parties' agencies having responsibility for trade remedies matters;
- (d) provide a forum for the Parties to exchange information on issues relating to antidumping, subsidies and countervailing measures, and safeguards;
- (e) establish and oversee development of educational programs related to the administration of trade remedy laws for officials of both Parties; and

DRAFT

Subject to Legal Review for Accuracy, Clarity, and Consistency

- (f) provide a forum for the Parties to discuss other relevant topics of mutual interest including:
  - (i) international issues related to trade remedies, including issues relating to the WTO Doha Round Rules negotiations;
  - (ii) practices by the Parties' competent authorities in antidumping and countervailing duty investigations, such as application of "facts available" and verification procedures; and
  - (iii) practices of a Party that may constitute industrial subsidies.
- 3. The Committee shall meet at least once a year and may meet more frequently as agreed by the Parties.
