

Canada-Ukraine Free Trade Agreement (CUFTA)

On July 11, 2016, the Government of Canada and Ukraine signed the Canada-Ukraine Free Trade Agreement (CUFTA). This represents an important milestone in the Canada–Ukraine bilateral relationship and will create new opportunities for businesses in both countries.

Canada and Ukraine will now proceed with their respective domestic implementation processes in order to bring CUFTA into force. Learn more on how you can take advantage of this agreement.
