

Canada-Chile Free Trade Agreement

Additional background information

...Most recently, on June 5, 2017, Canada and Chile signed Amending Agreements to the CCFTA which will add new chapters on sanitary and phytosanitary measures, technical barriers to trade, and trade and gender, make technical amendments to the existing government procurement chapter, and add new, progressive elements to the investment chapter. These amendments will enter into force once both Canada and Chile have completed their respective domestic implementation processes.
